BUILDING PERMITS

Permits are required for most types of remodeling and repairs. All new construction requires a permit. Zoning Code & Design Standards adopted 2007 as well as the current International Building Codes and updated annually. If any questions on a project call Brian Shay, Building Official at City Hall 319-545-2572 Ext 4.

PET REGULATIONS

Animals must be registered with the city per City Ordinance every calendar year.
$10.00 annual registration fee.
$4.00 reduced annual registration fee in December for the upcoming year.

When applying, you must provide current vaccination records from a licensed Veterinarian. Animals will need to be licensed as soon as they reach seven months.

City ordinance allows three dogs and three cats in residential zones. Puppies will be considered dogs at eight weeks and at that time they will fall under the three dogs' limitations.

Pets must be under control and restrained by competent person. Pets must be on leash at all times when off owner's premises. Any animal found off premises of its owner at large will be collected for impoundment. Impounding fees and boarding costs will be charged for any animal picked up at-large and released to an owner.

Disturbances caused by a pet such as howling, yelping, or barking are all prohibited and may bring cause for summons if these types of problems are brought to the attention of City officials. It is unlawful to keep a vicious animal. It is unlawful for the owner of an animal to allow or let such animal to pass onto the premises of another thereby causing damage or interference. Livestock is not allowed in non-agricultural residential areas. Violators may be assessed City infractions by Ordinance.
